- c. The performance will be evaluated based on the following:

Criteria	4 - Excellent	3 - Proficient	2 - Developing	1 - Beginning
1. Meaning and Intention	Clearly explains the personal meaning of the movement; strong emotional or symbolic connection is evident in execution.	Describes why the movement is meaningful; some connection is visible in performance.	Gives a basic reason for the activity; emotional or symbolic link is unclear or weak.	Gives little or no explanation for choosing the movement; no personal connection shown.
2. Mindful Awareness During Movement	Movement is performed with deep focus, calm, and present-moment awareness; body and breath are well-coordinated.	Shows clear effort to focus on breath and movement; occasional distraction or break in awareness.	Displays some awareness but appears distracted or rushed at times.	Rarely demonstrates mindfulness; movement appears mechanical or unfocused.
3. Physical Execution of Movement	Movements are precise, expressive, and thoughtfully chosen to reflect the intention.	Movements are mostly clear and coordinated; generally, reflect the intended meaning.	Movements are somewhat disorganized or inconsistent with the intended message.	Movements lack clarity or purpose; difficult to interpret the intention behind them.
4. Creativity and Originality	Movement or choreography is original, expressive, and creative; shows personal interpretation.	Some creative elements are present; performance shows thought and effort.	Limited originality; relies on generic or copied movements.	No evident creativity; movement lacks uniqueness or expression.
5. Overall Presence and Engagement	Fully engaged and confident throughout; the audience can sense the performer's connection to the task.	Mostly confident and engaged; slight signs of hesitation.	Occasionally distracted or unsure; engagement fades at moments.	Appears disengaged or uncomfortable; minimal effort to connect with the activity.

V. Synthesis

Activity: Peer Evaluation & Feedback Session – Learners present their performances to peers, who provide constructive feedback based on execution, focus, and mindfulness.

Feedback Process:

- After each performance, peers will provide feedback using the following criteria:
 - Execution: Clarity, technique, and effectiveness of movement.
 - Focus: Level of concentration and ability to remain mindful throughout the performance.
 - Mindfulness: Connection to movement, emotional expression, and engagement.
- Feedback should be constructive and specific, highlighting strengths and offering suggestions for refinement.
