2. In what ways can this concept map guide you to be a more effective team member in future activities?

Rubric 1: Concept Mapping Activity

Criteria	4 - Excellent	3 - Proficient	2 - Developing	1 - Beginning
Content Accuracy & Completeness	All key concepts are clearly identified and thoroughly explained with relevant examples.	Most key concepts are included and explained with appropriate examples.	Some key concepts are missing or partially explained.	Major concepts are missing or inaccurately presented.
Organization & Structure	Map is well-organized with clear connections and logical flow of ideas.	Ideas are mostly well-organized and connections are mostly clear.	Organization is inconsistent; some links between ideas are unclear.	Map lacks clear organization; connections are confusing or missing.
Creativity & Visual Presentation	Visually engaging and creative use of colors, symbols, and layout enhances understanding.	Some creativity and use of design elements to support understanding.	Limited use of visual tools; presentation is basic but understandable.	Lacks creativity or clarity; visual presentation hinders understanding.
Group Collaboration	All group members participated actively and contributed meaningfully to the final output.	Most members contributed and showed teamwork throughout the task.	Uneven participation; a few members did most of the work.	Minimal collaboration; most work was done by one or two members.
Application of Real-Life Examples	Multiple relevant and insightful examples are integrated into the concept map.	Some relevant examples are included to support understanding.	Few or vague examples are present with limited relevance.	No real-life examples included or unrelated to the topic.
