LEARNING ACTIVITY SHEET

Learning Area:	Life and Career Skills	Quarter:	First Quarter
Lesson No.:	1	Date:
Lesson Title/ Topic:	Understanding Life's Developmental Stages
Name:		Grade & Section:

I. Activity: Vision Casting

II. Objective(s):

At the end of this activity, the learners will be able to:

- Reflect meaningfully on personal and professional growth by visualizing a future retirement scenario and articulating key milestones achieved over the course of one's career.
- Develop communication and visualization skills by vividly describing a future event, including sensory details such as attire, setting, and audience reactions.
- Enhance self-awareness and clarity of purpose through guided self-reflection and emotional introspection during the imagined retirement speech.

III. Materials Needed: Pen and paper

- IV. Instructions: Carefully do a self-reflection of the event to yourself. You may choose to close your eyes and identify the occasion. You will be asked to describe vividly what you are wearing and the feelings of the people in the audience who want to listen to you. You should also describe how you are feeling. And lastly, don't forget to savor the moment.

Guide Questions:

1. How did you feel when you were entering the room to give your speech?

2. What did the other people in the room feel?

3. What were you feeling when you gave your speech?

4. What advice did you give to the younger generation of employees?

5. How does it feel to give such advice?
