Activity- OPTION 2: THREE-LAYER FACTOR MAP (Analytical -Concept Mapping Strategy)

- I. Objective(s): At the end of the activity, the learners would be able to Create a concept map to analyze and visually represent the factors influencing your chosen career path, integrating personal, social, and environmental elements.
- II. Materials Needed:
- ✓ Worksheet or blank bond paper
 - ✓ Pens, markers, or highlighters
 - ✓ Sample concept map displayed on board or slide
- III. Instructions:
- 1. Gather Your Inputs
- Review your notes and outputs from Weeks 1–7, including self-assessment inventories, workplace analyses, and wellness reflections. These will inform your concept map content.
- 2. Understand the Task
- You will create a concept map centered on the theme:
- “Factors Influencing My Career Path”
- This map visualizes how different factors you studied connect to your career choice.
- 3. See Examples
- Look at sample concept map formats (concentric circles, web map, flow map, tree map) on the board or slide. Note that concept maps show relationships and hierarchies among ideas, unlike graphic organizers that group information.

4. Design Your Map

Structure the map using any format you prefer. Include:

- Central node: Your target career or field ((e.g., “Environmental Scientist,” “Graphic Designer,” “Healthcare Professional”)
- Factors branching from center:
 - ✓ Personal Factors (e.g., skills, interests, values, talents)

Example:

 - Skills (e.g., critical thinking, technical skills)
 - Interests (e.g., passion for science, creativity)
 - Values (e.g., helping others, work-life balance)
 - Talents (e.g., communication, problem-solving skills)
 - ✓ Social Factors (e.g., family, peers, cultural influences)
 - ✓ Environmental Factors (e.g., job trends, opportunities, technology, workplace conditions, wellness)

5. Connect the Dots

Use arrows or lines to show how each factor influences or relates to your career choice.

6. Be Creative and Clear

Use keywords that reflect your insights, such as:

- Personal: “good communicator,” “values teamwork”
- Social: “peer encouragement,” “parental support”
- Environmental: “local job demand,” “TESDA training availability”

7. Share Your Work

Volunteer to present your concept map and explain the connections you identified.

Share your Career Map here:

IV. Synthesis:

Which factor has the strongest influence on your chosen career?

How do your personal, social, and environmental factors work together?

If you could change one factor, which would it be and why?
