Activity option 1: Personal Career Influence & Opportunity – Day 3

Objective(s): At the end of the activity, you should be able to create and present your “Personal Career Influence and Opportunity Table” by mapping your influences and opportunities that may connect to your career path of your chosen Senior High School Curriculum exit/s.

Materials Needed:

- Paper or bond paper
- Markers, crayons, or coloring materials (for creative design)
- Access to a computer or tablet (for digital file)
- Rubric (provided by the teacher for self-assessment)

Instructions:

Give each learner a copy of the Career Influence and Opportunity Table (blank)

The teacher will guide the students to:

1. Reflect on their skills, interests, and passions, and list how these link with social and environmental influences.
2. Identify an example (influence or opportunity).
3. Explain how it affects their career choice.
4. State a possible career path or field.
5. Indicate their intended SHS exit path (Employment, Entrepreneurship, Higher Education, Middle-Level Skills).
6. How can they adapt if things change?

Activity Option#2: Career Influence and Opportunity Infographic – Day 3

Objective(s): At the end of the activity, you should be able to create and present your “Personal Career Influence and Opportunity Infographic” by mapping your influences and opportunities that may connect to your career path of your chosen Senior High School Curriculum exit/s.

Materials Needed:

- Paper or bond paper
- Markers, crayons, or coloring materials (for creative design)
- Access to a computer or tablet (for digital file)
- Rubric (provided by the teacher for self-assessment)

Instructions:

Instructions: The teacher will guide the students on how to do the infographic using the ideas below. Guide the student on these:

1. Think about your future career goal.
2. Choose a job or profession you dream of pursuing.
3. Reflect on what influences your career choice.
4. Consider the following categories:
 - a. Personal Factors: Your skills, interests, and passions.
 - b. Social Influences: People who guide or affect your decision (family, friends, teachers, community).
 - c. Environmental Influences: Opportunities around you (job market trends, scholarships, technologies, future jobs).
 - d. Gather opportunities and challenges related to your chosen career.
5. Think about:
 - a. What opportunities are available to help you reach your goal?
 - b. What possible problems might you face — and how can you adapt or solve them?
6. Decide your SHS exit path. (Higher Education, Middle-level skills, Entrepreneurship, Employment)
7. Design your infographic.
 - a. Use any layout (circle map, flowchart, or creative infographic).
 - b. Include short phrases, icons, or arrows instead of long sentences.
 - c. Make it colorful and organized — easy to understand at a glance.
8. Add an adaptability plan.
 - If my first career plan doesn't work out, what will I do to stay on track or adjust?

Activity 1: My NEWS Career Compass – Day 4

Objective(s): At the end of the activity, you should be able to

1. identify key factors affecting career planning by filling in the four compass points (social influences, environmental factors, personal interests/strengths, and opportunities).
2. analyze how these factors connect and impact their personal career choices.
3. reflect on steps they should take to move toward their career goals while balancing influences, opportunities, and personal strengths.

Materials Needed:

- Paper or bond paper
- Markers, crayons, or coloring materials (for creative design)
- Access to a computer or tablet (for digital file)
- Rubric (provided by the teacher for self-assessment)

Instructions:

Draw a Compass and label them with (N-North, S-South, E-east, and W-West)

Label the compass points:

N= Social Influences (e.g. family, peers, mentors, community, culture)

E = Personal Interests & Strengths (e. g. skills, talents, hobbies, values)

W= Opportunities (e.g. scholarships, future jobs, training, community programs)

S = Environmental Factors (e.g. job market, technology, globalization, economy)

Fill in each compass point with notes or examples based on your own experiences and goals. After completing the compass, answer the reflection questions below.

Reflection Questions:

1. Upon looking at your compass, what steps should you take to move toward your career goal while balancing personal factors, influences, and opportunities?

2. What Senior High School exit are you considering in your career journey (employment, entrepreneurship, higher education, or middle-level skills)?

Rubric for My NEWS Career Compass

Criteria	Excellent (5 pts)	Good (3 pts)	Fair (1 pt)
Content	All four compass points complete with clear notes	3 compass points complete	1–2 compass points complete or unclear
Reflection	Both guide questions answered with thoughtful responses	Questions answered but brief	Questions unanswered or unclear
Neatness & Effort	Work is neat, organized, and shows strong effort	Work is somewhat neat with average effort	Work is messy or incomplete
