LEARNING ACTIVITY SHEET (LAS)

Learning Area	Effective Communication	Quarter	3
Lesson No.	1	Date
Lesson Title/Topic:	Interpreting Meaning in Academic and Technical Texts through audience, purpose, and context
Name		Grade & Section

I. Activity #1: Read, Understand, Interpret Messages

II. Learning Objectives:

- Identify how content, structure, and language of spoken, written, and multimodal texts are shaped by audience, purpose, and context.
- Use language, tone, and structure appropriately for audience, purpose, and context in discussing a variety of academic and technical topics.

III. Materials Needed: Pen, paper

IV. Directions: Read and interpret the poem “Because I Could Not Stop for Death” by Emily Dickinson. Identify and explain its content, structure, and the type of language used.

Because I could not stop for Death

By Emily Dickinson

Because I could not stop for Death –
 He kindly stopped for me –
 The Carriage held but just Ourselves –
 And Immortality.
 We slowly drove – He knew no haste
 And I had put away
 My labor and my leisure too,
 For His Civility –
 We passed the School, where Children strove
 At Recess – in the Ring –
 We passed the Fields of Gazing Grain –
 We passed the Setting Sun –
 Or rather – He passed Us –
 The Dews drew quivering and chill –
 For only Gossamer, my Gown –
 My Tippet – only Tulle –
 We paused before a House that seemed
 A Swelling of the Ground –
 The Roof was scarcely visible –
 The Cornice – in the Ground –
 Since then – ’tis Centuries – and yet
 Feels shorter than the Day
 I first surmised the Horses’ Heads
 Were toward Eternity –

1. Content: (Discuss the central theme of Emily Dickinson's poem)
How does the poet portray death and immortality? Use specific lines from the poem to support your interpretation.

2. Structure: (Analyze the structure of the poem)
How do the stanzas, rhythm, and rhyme scheme contribute to the overall meaning and tone of the poem?

3. Language: (Examine the type of language Emily Dickinson used)
How do her use of figurative language, imagery, and personification help the reader understand her attitude toward death? Provide examples from the poem.

Directions: Answer the following questions critically. Reflect on how audience, purpose, and context influence the meaning of Emily Dickinson's poem "Because I Could Not Stop for Death" and how these ideas apply to interpreting other types of texts.

1. How does knowing Emily Dickinson's audience and purpose help you understand the meaning of "Because I could not stop for Death"? How could this idea apply when interpreting academic or technical texts?

2. How does the historical and cultural context of Dickinson's time shape the poem's message about death? How can understanding context help you interpret other types of texts, like textbooks or reports?

3. How would the poem "Because I could not stop for Death" be different if Emily Dickinson wrote it for people today? How does knowing the audience help you understand other types of texts?

I. Activity #2: Listening Beyond the Lyrics

II. Learning Objectives:

- Identify how content, structure, and language of spoken, written, and multimodal texts are shaped by audience, purpose, and context.
- Use language, tone, and structure appropriately for audience, purpose, and context in discussing a variety of academic and technical topics.

III. Directions: You will be given a copy of the song “Upuan” by Zelle. Read the lyrics carefully and analyze their meaning. Then, answer the following questions in complete sentences, providing thoughtful, well-developed responses that reflect the song’s message. Write your answers on the space provided.

Upuan by Zelle

Ganito kasi yan eh

Tao po nandyan po kayo sa loob ng

Malaking bahay at malawak na bakuran

Mataas na pader pinapaligiran

At naka pilang mga mamahaling sasakyan

Mga patay na laging bulong ng bulong

Wala namang kasal pero marami ang naka barong

Lumakas man ang ulan ay walang butas ang bubong

Mga plato't kutsara na hindi kilala ang tutong

At ang kanin ay simputi ng gatas na nasa kahon

At kahit na hindi pasko sa lamesa ay may hamon

Ang sarap sigurong manirahan sa bahay na ganyan

Sabi pa nila ay dito mo rin matatagpuan

Ang tao na nagmamay-ari ng isang upuan

Na pag may pagkakatao'y pinag-aagawan

Kaya naman hindi niya pinakakawalan

Kung makikita ko lamang siya ay aking sisigawan

1. What specific lines in the song best reflect its purpose? Why do you think so?

2. How does the song's message connect to real-life social issues today?

3. If you were to change or add a line to the song to make its message stronger for today's generation, what would it be? Why?

I. Activity #3: Pen-and-Paper Test

II. Learning Objectives:

- Identify how content, structure, and language of spoken, written, and multimodal texts are shaped by audience, purpose, and context.
- Use language, tone, and structure appropriately for audience, purpose, and context in discussing a variety of academic and technical topics.

III. Directions: Read the following statements/questions below. Encircle the letter that corresponds to your answer.

1. How does knowing the audience of a text help a reader?
 - A. It allows the reader to ignore the author's purpose.
 - B. It helps the reader understand why the text is written and how to interpret it correctly.
 - C. It makes the text easier to memorize.
 - D. It changes the content of the text automatically.
2. Which of the following shows how structure can be shaped by purpose?
 - A. A research report uses headings and subheadings to organize information clearly.
 - B. A poem uses random lines without any pattern.
 - C. A novel has chapters just for decoration.
 - D. A social media post ignores grammar and punctuation.
3. What effect does language choice have in written or spoken texts?
 - A. It does not affect meaning as long as the text is long enough.
 - B. It helps convey tone, clarity, and meaning to the intended audience.
 - C. It only matters in poetry, not technical texts.
 - D. It is only important for humor.
4. A multimodal text combines which of the following?
 - A. Only written words
 - B. Only pictures or images
 - C. Two or more modes, such as text, images, sound, or video
 - D. Only audio recordings
5. Why is it important to consider context when interpreting a technical or academic text?
 - A. Context tells you how long the text should be
 - B. Context helps readers understand the purpose, background, and meaning of the text
 - C. Context allows you to change the text's content
 - D. Context is only relevant for historical texts

IV. Directions: Answer each question in a clear paragraph using complete sentences. Support your ideas with examples and connect them logically. Write your answers on the space provided.

1. How do delivery, structure, purpose, and language affect effective communication?

2. How do audience, purpose, and context influence the differences between multimodal texts and technical or academic texts?
