Learning Area:	Life and Career Skills	Quarter:	2 nd Quarter
Lesson Exemplar No.:	7	Date:
Lesson Title/ Topic:	Team Sports including Traditional Filipino Games (Laro ng Lahi)
Name:		Grade & Section:

I. Activity No. 1: “Think-Triad-Share”

II. Objective(s):

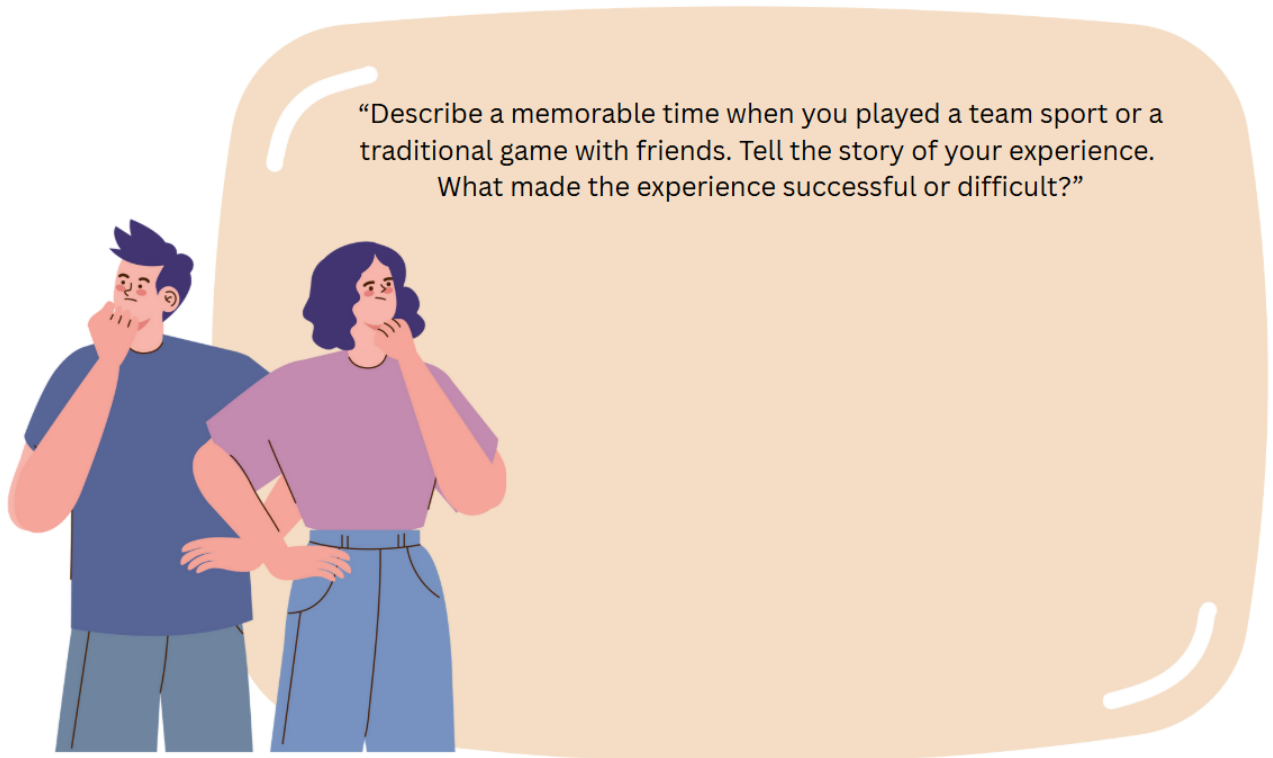

At the end of this activity, the learners will be able to reflect on and share personal experiences related to playing team sports or traditional Filipino games to recognize factors that contribute to successful teamwork.

III. Materials Needed:

- Pen and paper or activity notebook
- Whiteboard, chalkboard, or manila paper (for class sharing)

IV. Instructions:

1. Reflect and write your response to this question:

2. Form groups of three (3) with your peers. Share your written response with your groupmates. Listen carefully to their experiences and insights.
3. Each triad will choose one representative to share the key points or common themes from your group’s sharing to the whole class.

V. Synthesis

Team sports and traditional Filipino games are more than just physical activities — they help build friendships, teach cooperation, and develop social skills. By sharing your experiences, you learn how teamwork, communication, and mutual respect play important roles not only in games, but in everyday life and future careers.

Answer these processing questions:

1. What emotions did you feel during that group experience? Why?

2. What common factors contributed to a successful team experience?

I. Activity No. 4: “Who’s Who Bingo”

II. Objective(s):

At the end of this activity, the learners will be able to identify classmates who have experience or qualities related to team sports and traditional Filipino games to recognize the values of teamwork and fair play.

III. Materials Needed:

- Printed Bingo cards with sports- and laro ng lahi-related descriptions
- Pens or markers

IV. Instructions:

1. Using the bingo card, walk around the room and approach classmates whom you believe match a description in one of the boxes.
2. If your classmate agrees, they write their name and sign the square. Note: No name may appear more than twice per Bingo card.
3. Your teacher will announce a specific pattern to complete (e.g., one row, X-pattern, T-shape, blackout/full card). Follow the pattern while enjoying interacting and collecting signatures.
4. When the time is up or someone completes the pattern, this game ends.

V. Synthesis

"Team sports and traditional Filipino games reveal the importance of cooperation, fairness, and shared experience. By discovering more about your classmates, you learn that strong teams are built on trust, encouragement, and communication — all are vital for personal growth and career readiness.

Answer these processing questions:

1. What did you discover about your classmates about being a part of a team?

2. What traits do you admire in a teammate?

I. Activity No. 12: “1-2-3 Pass”

II. Objective(s):

At the end of this activity, the learners will be able to demonstrate respectful and assertive communication to resolve conflicts in team sports settings using the DEAR MAN strategy.

III. Materials Needed:

- Printed DEAR MAN worksheet
- Pen or marker

IV. Instructions:

1. Recall a real situation where you experienced or witnessed a conflict while playing a team sport or traditional Filipino game. This can include issues like unfair playtime, blaming teammates, or lack of communication.
2. Using the format below, write your experience anonymously on the slip of paper provided. “In a (name of sport or game), I experienced a situation where (briefly describe the conflict – what happened, who was involved, what the issue was).”
3. Fold your paper and place it in the container at the front of the classroom. Your teacher will redistribute the written scenarios randomly. You will receive a different slip that is not your own.
4. Pair up with a classmate (your teacher may assign the pair). Read and discuss the scenario together. Using the DEAR MAN worksheet, collaboratively write a respectful and goal-oriented message that a teammate could say to address the issue. Be ready to share your answer with the class if called.

V. Synthesis

In sports and life, conflicts may arise—but how we respond matters. Using DEAR MAN helps us express ourselves clearly, respectfully, and assertively. When we learn to resolve problems with fairness and calm, we become better teammates and build stronger relationships on and off the playing field.

Answer this processing question:

How did using the DEAR MAN strategy help in addressing a teamwork-related issue?
